

Presentation stage

subject

Presentation stage (Visual Stimulus)

A subject is the main focus of a sentence.

Subject: A football player

Presentation stage (Visual Stimulus)

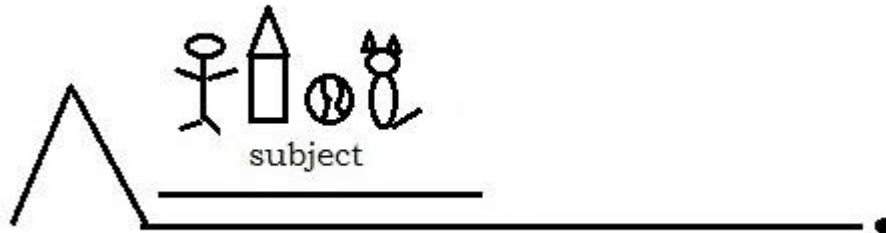

A subject could be more than one person.

Subject: A football team

Note: Picture shows the Lions XII Team winning Malaysian Super League on 2nd July 2013 (taken from Google Images)

Presentation stage (Band A1-A3)

A subject is the main focus of the sentence.

A subject names a person, place or thing.

- A thing could be an object or an animal.

Examples:

- Person  : Football Player (Eg. The football player kicks.)
- Place  : Stadium (Eg. The stadium opens.)
- Thing  : Ball (Eg. The ball rolls.)

Introduction worksheet (Band A1-A3)

- Suggested pre-reading: "The Surprise in My School Bag" (PM Writing Exemplars for Teaching Writing Book 1+)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing the subject

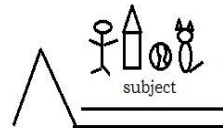

Subject: _____

New concept!

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place or a thing.

- A thing could be an object or an animal.

Example: Teacher marks .

Circle the symbol that classifies the subject word as a person, a place or a thing.

Introduction worksheet (Band A1-A3 _ Suggested Answers)

- Suggested pre-reading: "The Surprise in My School Bag" (PM Writing Exemplars for Teaching Writing Book 1+)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing the subject

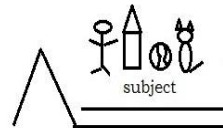

Subject: _____

New concept!

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place or a thing.

- A thing could be an object or an animal.

Example: ~~Teacher~~ marks . ●

Circle the symbol that classifies the subject word as a person, a place or a thing.

Name: _____

Date: _____

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place or a thing.

Write down or draw at least TWO words in each box when it comes to: "Singapore Zoological Gardens".

An example for "place" has been given for you.

People	Places (Eg. Souvenir Shop)
Singapore Zoological Gardens
Things (Object)	Things (Animal)

Name: _____

Date: _____

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place, a thing or an idea.

Write down or draw at least TWO words for each category when it comes to: "Singapore Zoological Gardens".

An example for 2 categories: "place" and "idea" have been given for you.

Presentation stage

A subject can have a common name or a proper name.

Common name: A football player

Proper name: David

Presentation stage

A subject can have a common name or a proper name.

Common name: A football team

Proper name: The Lions XII Football Team

Note: Picture shows the Lions XII Team winning Malaysian Super League on 2nd July 2013 (taken from Google Images)

Suggested pre-reading: "Story Book" (PM Writing Levelled Exemplar Text Levels 24/25)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Common names & Proper names

Subjects with common names.

girl boy
man woman
pet dog street

Subjects with proper names start with a capital letter.

Common names	->	Proper names
girl	->	Sarah
boy	->	Ali
man	->	Mr Tan
woman	->	Mrs Tan
pet dog	->	Lucky
street name	->	Orchard Road

Now, write down the proper names for your family.

Common names	->	Proper names
 1) mother / father	->	_____
 2) brother / sister	->	_____
 3) pet	->	_____
4) street name	->	_____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Common names & Proper names

Choose the correct proper names for each of the pictures below.

Old Chang Kee

Kai Kai & Jia Jia

Sir Stamford Raffles

Universal Studios Singapore

VivoCity Mall,

Singapore Airlines.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Review concept: The Subject

Subject: _____

Review concept!

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place or a thing.

- A thing could be an object or an animal.

- A subject can have a common name or a proper name.

Examples: Dog barks . ●Lucky barks. ●

Underline the subjects. Next, write "C" if it's a common name and "P" if it's a proper name in the brackets.

1. My dad jogs.

1. ()

2. The bride smiles.

2. ()

3. Kitty naps.

3. ()

4. The branch fell.

4. ()

5. Sally skips.

5. ()

Name: _____

Date: _____

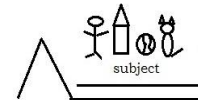

Review concept: The Subject

Subject: _____

Review concept!

A subject is the main focus of the sentence. A subject names a person, a place or a thing.

- A thing could be an object or an animal.

- A subject can have a common name or a proper name.

Examples: Dog barks. • Lucky barks. •

Underline the subjects. Next, write “C” if it’s a common name and “P” if it’s a proper name in the brackets.

1. Dad jogs.

1. (C)

2. The bride smiles.

2. (C)

3. Kitty naps.

3. (P)

4. The branch fell.

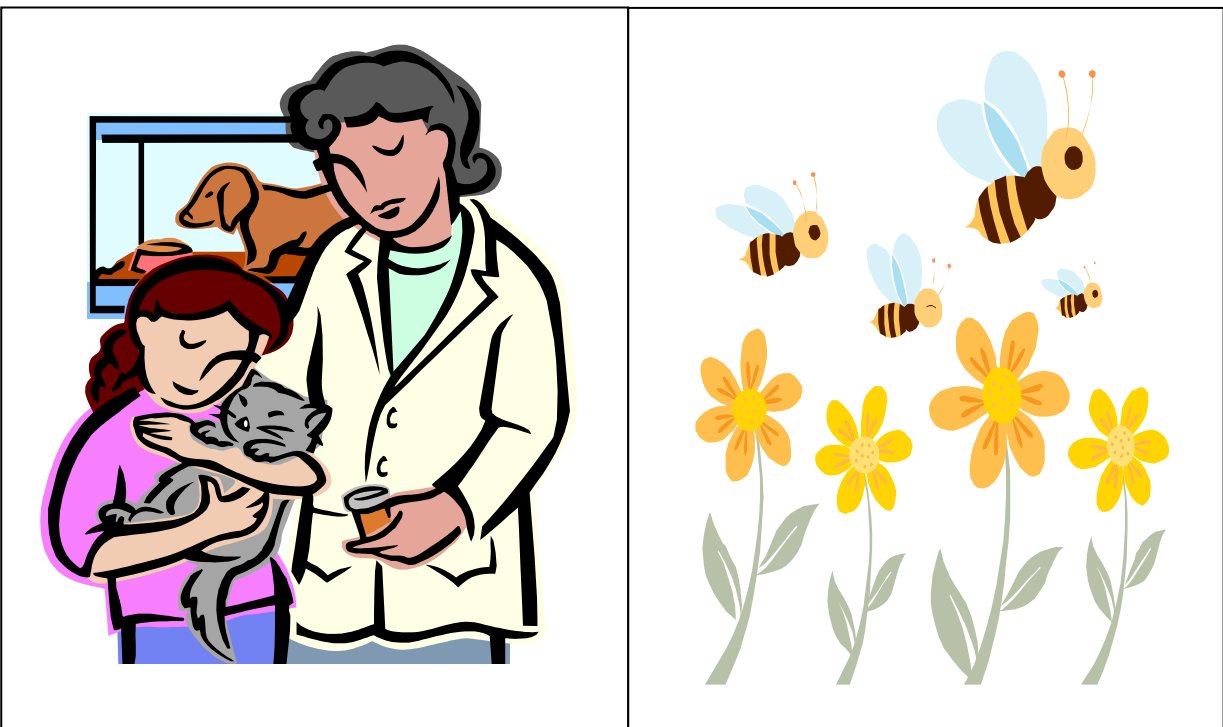

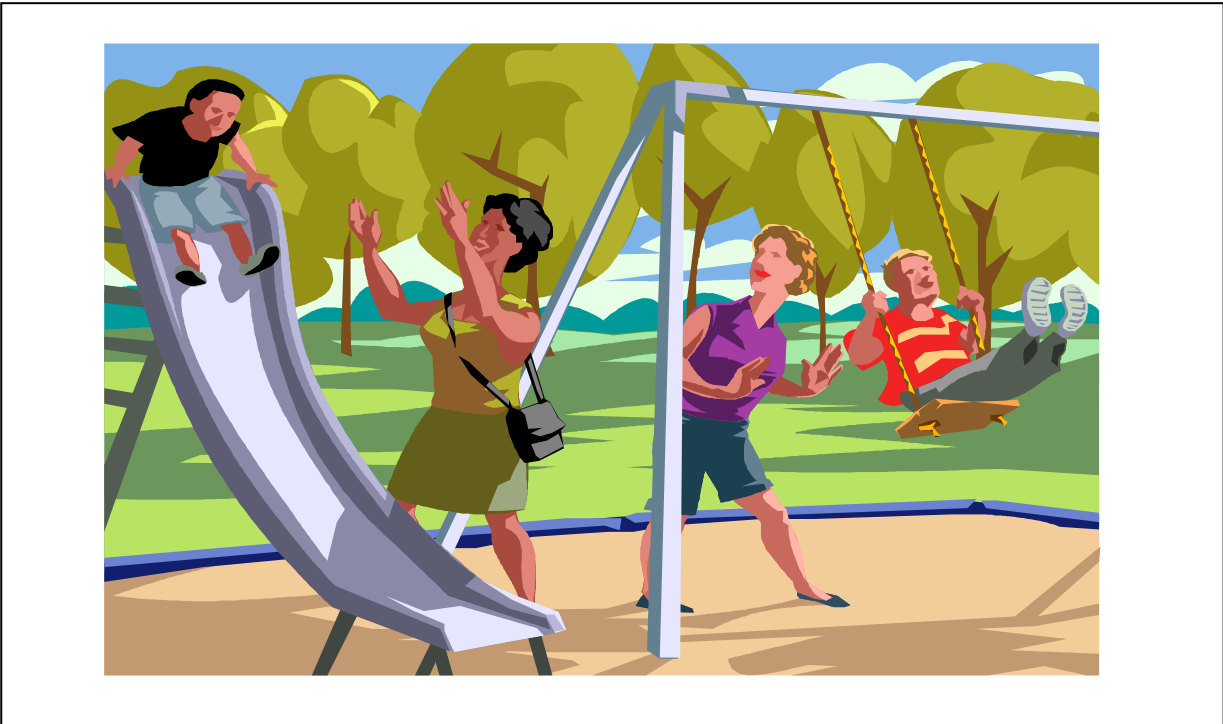

4. (C)

5. Lina skips.

5. (P)

Production Activity (What's the subject in this picture?)

Show students pictures like the following and get them to brainstorm on the possible subjects. Teachers could also encourage them to say out the sentences based on the subjects they have come up with.

Presentation stage

Compound Subject

——— eee ———

A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.

——— eee

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing Compound Subjects

Connector:

and

New concept!

A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.

Example: Mom and Dad
——— and ———

Diagram the compound subjects below and then read out the sentences. Follow the example given above:

- 1) Mr Tan and Mrs Tan are back.
- 2) My brother and sister help at the shop.

- 3) Ben 10 and Kim Possible are the best!

- 4) The bun and jam are in the fridge.

- 5) The dress and shoes do not match.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing Compound Subjects

Connector: and

New concept!

A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.

Example: Mom and Dad
 _____ and _____

Diagram the compound subjects below and then read out the sentences. Follow the example given above:

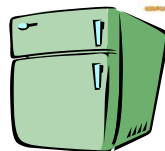

1) Mr Tan and Mrs Tan are back.
 _____ and _____

2) My brother and sister help at the shop.
 _____ and _____

3) Ben 10 and Kim Possible are the best!
 _____ and _____

4) The bun and jam are in the fridge.
 _____ and _____

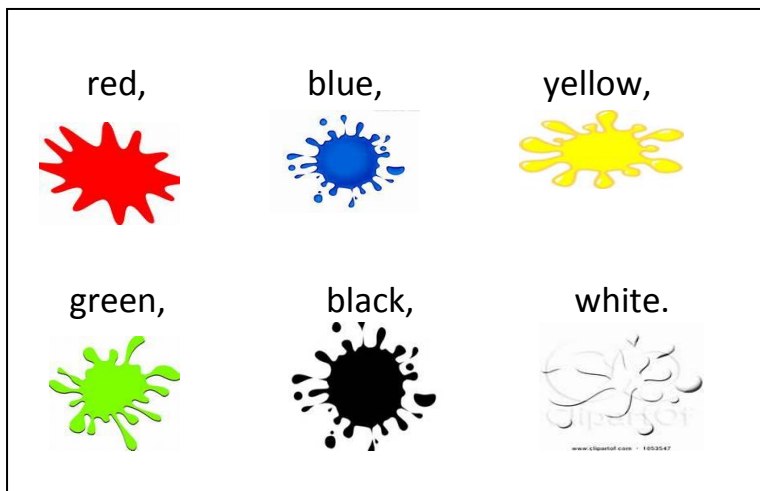

5) The dress and shoes do not match.
 _____ and _____

Practice worksheet (Band A1-A3)

- Suggested pre-reading: "Rainbows" (PM Writing Levelled Exemplar Text Levels 25)

Name: _____

Date: _____

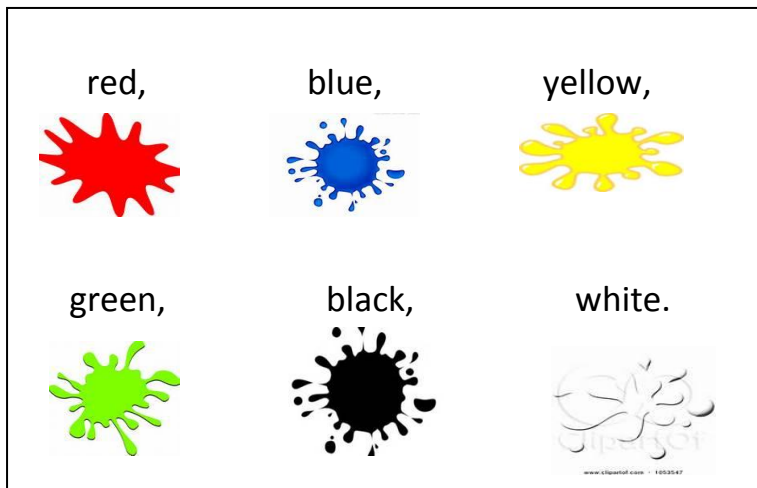

A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.*Let's mix TWO colours!*Fill in each blank with a colour to complete the sentences below. Then, add the connector symbol.*Use the colours in the box. They may be repeated.*1) _____ and white make the colour pink.2) Red and _____ make the colour purple.3) Blue and _____ make the colour green.4) Red and _____ make the colour orange.5) _____ and white make the colour grey.

Practice worksheet (Answer Key)

- Suggested pre-reading: "Rainbows" (PM Writing Levelled Exemplar Text Levels 25)

Name: _____

Date: _____

A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.*Let's mix TWO colours!*Fill in each blank with a colour to complete the sentences below. Then, add the connector symbol.*Use the colours in the box. They may be repeated.*1) Red and white make the colour pink.2) Red and blue make the colour purple.3) Blue and yellow make the colour green.4) Red and yellow make the colour orange.5) Black and white make the colour grey.

Presentation stage

Introducing Series Subject

A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing Series Subjects

New concept!

A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.

➔ It makes use of commas and a connector.

Example: Mom, Dad and I
 _____>_____ ell _____

Diagram the series subjects below and then read out the sentences. Follow the example given above:

1. The dog, cat and fish are my pets.

2. The pot, pan, bowl and dish are in the sink.

3. Sam, his brothers and sister play at our house.

4. My pen, pencil, eraser and ruler are pink.

5. My family, cousins, aunts and uncles are going for a picnic.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Introducing Series Subjects

New concept!

A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.

➔ It makes use of commas and a connector.

Example: Mom, Dad and I
 _____>_____ lll _____

Diagram the series subjects below and then read out the sentences. Follow the example given above:

1. The dog, cat and fish are my pets.

_____>_____ lll _____

2. The pot, pan, bowl and dish are in the sink.

_____>_____>_____ lll _____

3. Sam, his brothers and sister play at our house.

_____>_____ lll _____

4. My pen, pencil, eraser and ruler are pink.

_____>_____>_____ lll _____

5. My family, cousins, aunts and uncles are going for a picnic.

_____>_____>_____ lll _____

Name: _____

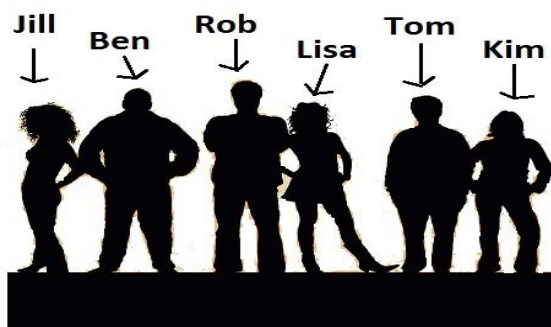

Date: _____

A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.

There is a queue of people who want to ride the roller coaster. Each row can only occupy 3 people. Decide where each person will sit by completing the sentences below.

1st row

2nd row

1) _____ will sit in the 1st row.

2) _____ will sit in the 2nd row.

Practice worksheet (Suggested Answers)

Name: _____

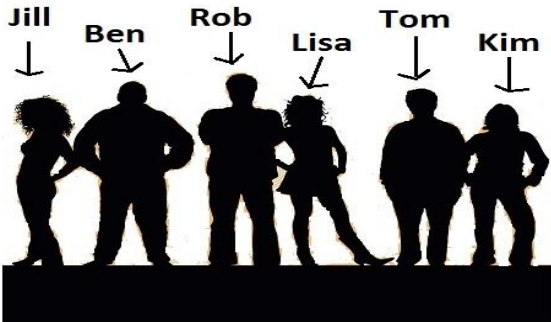

Date: _____

A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.

There is a queue of people who want to ride the roller coaster. Each row can only occupy 3 people. Decide where each person will sit by completing the sentences below.

1st row	2nd row

1) Jill, Ben and Rob will sit in the 1st row.

2) Lisa, Tom and Kim will sit in the 2nd row.

Name: _____

Date: _____

Review concept: Compound & Series Subjects

Subject: _____

Review concept!i) A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.Example: My class and I _____ and _____ii) A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.➔ It makes use of commas and a connector.Example: Mike, Sam and I
_____, _____ and _____Place commas after subject words when appropriate. Write in the brackets "cp" if it is a compound subject or "se" if it is a series subject.

1. Mr Tan Mr Lim and Miss Goh helped us. ()

2. Tom and I run fast. ()

3. The cat and the kittens drink milk. ()

4. The bus the car and the van are blocked. ()

5. Lift A lift B and lift C stopped working. ()

Name: _____

Date: _____

Review concept: Compound & Series Subjects

Subject: _____

Review concept!i) A compound subject consists of two subjects connected by a connector.Example: My class and I _____ & _____ii) A series subject consists of three or more individual subjects connected by commas and a connector.➔ It makes use of commas and a connector.Example: Mike, Sam and I
_____ , _____ & _____Place commas after subject words when appropriate. Write in the brackets "cp" if it is a compound subject or "se" if it is a series subject.

1. Mr Tan, Mr Lim and Miss Goh helped us. (se)

2. Tom and I run fast. (cp)

3. The cat and the kittens drink milk. (cp)

4. The bus, the car and the van are blocked. (se)

5. Lift A, lift B and lift C stopped working. (se)

Review worksheet 1

Name: _____

Date: _____

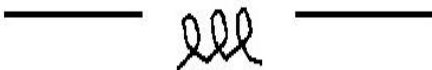

Reviewing Diagramming

Match the symbols to the correct terms.

Symbols

1.

2.

3.

4.

Terms

- Compound subject
- Sentence frame
- Series Subject
- Subject

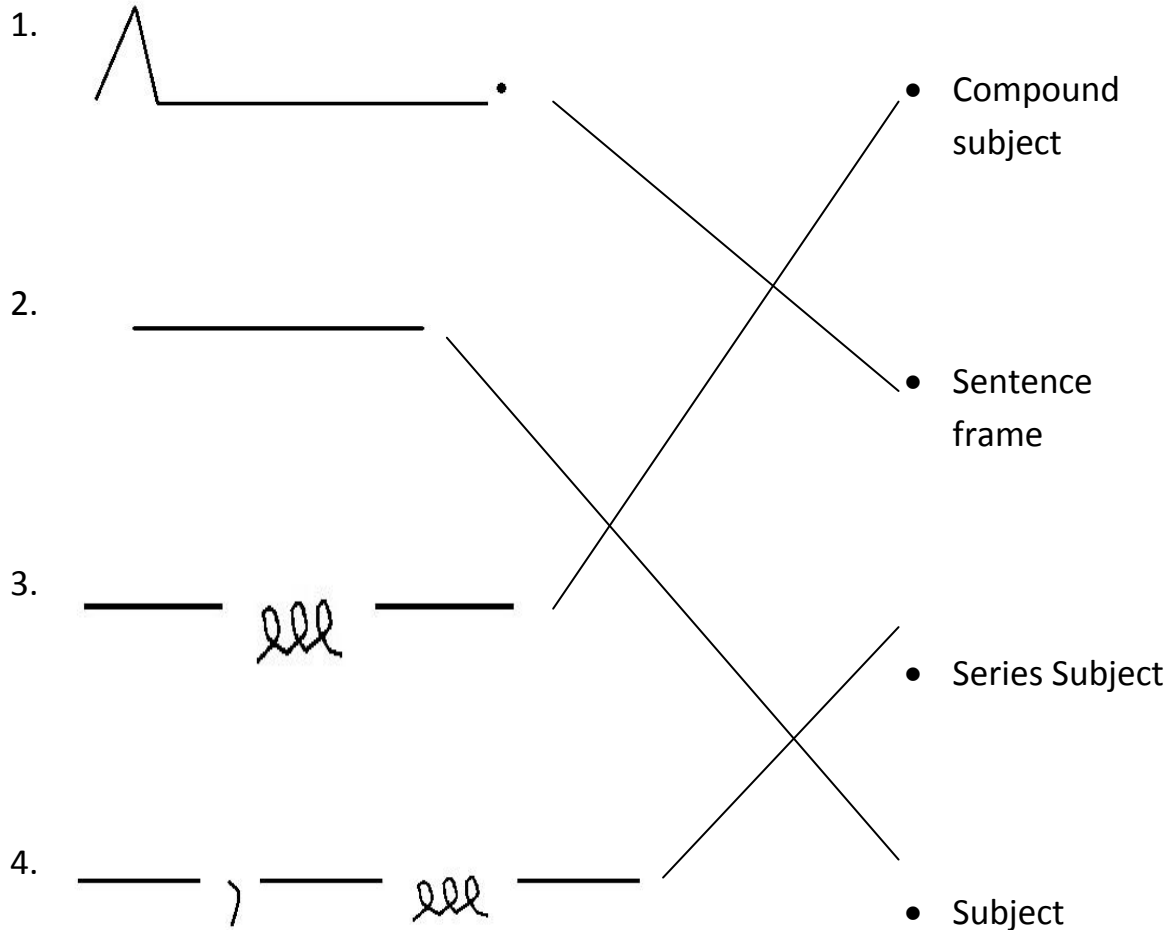

Review worksheet 1 (Answer Key)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reviewing Diagramming

Match the symbols to the correct terms.

SymbolsTerms

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reviewing Diagramming - Subjects

Now, write on each symbol an example for each of these subjects.

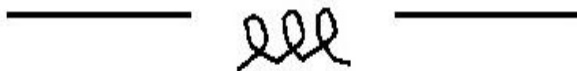

Symbols

1.

A subject

2.

A compound subject

3.

A series subject

Review worksheet 2 (Suggested Answers)

Name: _____

Date: _____

Reviewing Diagramming - Subjects

Now, write on each symbol an example for each of these subjects.

Symbols1. Tom

A subject

2. *Jack and Jill*_____ and _____

A compound subject

3. *Lions, tigers and cheetahs*_____ , _____ and _____

A series subject

Summary stage (Band A1-A3)

Compound subject

E.g. Sam and his dog

Series subject

E.g. Sam, his dog and his sister

